Connelly Testifies Schwimmer Asked Nothing Improper

Rep. Morgan Moulder and George Allen Give Character Testimony In Behalf of HST's Ex-Secretary

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Matthew J. Connelly, former President Truman's appointments secretary on trial on a conspiracy charge, testified today he never was asked by Harry I. Schwimmer, a tax evader's lawyer, "to do anything improper."

"If he had, I would not have known him very long," Connelly said. "I was not asked to do anything for Mr. Schwimmer that I did not do for other people."

Connelly and T. Lamar Caudle, former head of the Justice Department's tax division, are charged with conspiring to defraud the government by fixing the tax case of Irving Sachs, whom Schwimmer served as an attorney.

Connelly addressed his remarks directly to the U. S. District Court jury as he testified in his own defense.

Rep. Moulder (D-Mo) and George E. Allen, personal friend of Truman and President Eisenhower, gave character testimony in Connelly's behalf.

Sachs, a St. Louis shoe manufacturer, was fined $40,000 in 1951 on a guilty plea but escaped a prison term on health grounds.

"There never was any reflection on Connelly" during his government service, Truman said.

Oscar Chapman, former secretary of the interior, and Harry A. McDonald, former head of the SEC and RFC, also testified for Connelly.

Chapman said Connelly was only carrying out duties of his office in arranging conferences for persons with various government officials in Washington.

Chapman said persons referred to his office by Connelly "got the same treatment as if they had walked in off the street."

McDonald testified in a similar vein.

The government, which has completed its case, contends Atty. Harry I. Schwimmer, acting for Sachs, bought oil royalties for Connelly and Caudle for their influence in the case.

The defense introduced evidence to show Connelly sent a $750 check to Schwimmer in payment for an oil royalty. The government charges Schwimmer paid $3,600 for a royalty for Connelly and $3,300 for another royalty for Caudle.

VA Director Lauds Effort Of Red Cross

Says It Has Done
'Magnificent Work'
For Vets in Hospital

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The administrator of veterans affairs today told the national convention of the Red Cross here that the organization has performed "magnificent work" for the benefit of hospitalized veterans.

Harvey V. Higley said the VA has counted on Red Cross aid during the past 10 years and has received it on all levels—national, area, and local chapter.

Higley also lauded the Red Cross blood program, pointing out that during the fiscal year 1954-1955, the VA received free nearly 70,000 pints of blood.

The Red Cross has provided one-third of the VA's total blood needs for more than five years, the administrator said in a speech prepared for delivery on the closing day of the three-day convention.

Civil Defense Director Val Peterson said yesterday that to survive in event of attack, America must disperse its new industrial plants and put some underground.

Peterson criticized Americans as "not serious about survival."

He declared this two-point program is essential to survival, but said dispersal "won't sound good to the cash register boys."

The defense director, illustrating his idea of dispersal, said he didn't favor "picking up a plant in St. Louis and moving it to some isolated area." In expanding that plant it would be wise to consider putting the expansion in a sparsely settled location, he said.

E. Roland Harriman, national Red Cross chairman, presented Peterson with a plaque for "meritorious service."

MPS Makes Request To Pay Gas Rebate

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—Missouri Public Service Co. asked state permission today to rebate $191,274 in excess charges to its natural gas customers in 10 western Missouri communities.

The money represents overpayment to Cities Service Gas Co. for natural gas from Nov. 5, 1954, to April 23, 1956, plus interest. Cities Service had established two wholesale rate increases during the period but both were knocked out by the Federal Power Commission in April.

The Missouri utility had passed the increases along to its customers under an agreement to repay any excess.

It supplies natural gas to customers in Nevada, Sedalia, Marshall, Lexington, Clinton, Henrietta, Platte City, Richmond, Tracy and Weston.

Brief, But Welcome

The promise was kept. The sky made good with its gray clouds, and Sedalia's gardens got another soaking.

Considerable cloudiness and scattered thunderstorms to night and Thursday; low to tonight 65; high Thursday 80.

The temperature at 7 a. m. was 63; 73 at 1 p. m., and 74 at 2 p. m. Rainfall .16 inch.

The temperature one year ago today, high 74, low 60, with .80 inch of rain; two years ago, high 86, low 64; and three years ago, high 84, low 62, with .33 inch of rain.

60-Year-Old Section Of School Burns, New Section Not Damaged

GRANT CITY, Mo. (AP)—A 60-year-old section of the Worth County R-1 school burned down early today after being struck by a bolt of lightning.

Damage was estimated by school officials at more than $200,000.

The three-story building housed 10 classrooms, study and offices. Another section of the school, built in 1920, was not damaged.

Estes Concedes California Election Loss

Stevenson Victory
May Mean Democrat
Nomination Again

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson won a smashing victory over Sen. Estes Kefauver in California's make-or-break Democratic presidential primary.

Kefauver conceded defeat early today.

Stevenson's overwhelming victory—which might approach a half-million-vote margin—appeared to have made him the man to beat for the Democratic prize.

It put him near the threshold of a second successive nomination which might put him in November for a rerun of the 1952 race. President Eisenhower won by 6,450,000 votes.

Stevenson grabbed a lead in the first scattered returns from yesterday's final contested presidential primary in the nation before the party's August convention in Chicago. He kept a steady pace all the way.

In a victory statement, he said he was "delighted by the results."

He added, however, "This is only the first step in a long campaign."

In conceding defeat, Kefauver sent a telegram to Stevenson expressing "sincerest congratulations on your victory." He said he and his supporters will "join in anything they can do to help you."

Telling reporters he had "no excuses, no regrets and no alibis," Kefauver said he plans to continue campaigning for the presidential nomination. He reiterated he would not accept a vice presidential spot.

California Atty. Gen. Edmund G. Brown, Stevenson's No. 1 backer in the state, said the outcome "means California will elect Adlai Stevenson in November."

Gravois Mills Youth Drowns Tuesday Night

Jimmy Christ, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Christ, Gravois Mills, was drowned about 7:30 p. m. Tuesday while swimming in the Lake of the Ozarks near his home. The youth and a friend, Kenneth Cook, 14, were together in the lake when the accident occurred.

Sheriff Corney Woods, Morgan County, who was called to the scene reported the Christ boy and Cook were alone in the lake. He said Kenneth told him that he noticed Jimmy with his head partly under water and swam to him to try and pull Jimmy out.

The body was taken to the Kidwell Funeral Home in Versailles. Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Tuesday at the Gravois Mills Methodist church with burial at Versailles Cemetery.

Road Service Officer Is Speaker—

AAA Garagemen Are Guests of Honor At Awards Banquet Tuesday Evening

A dinner was held Tuesday evening at Bothwell Hotel at which AAA garagemen and their wives and friends of the Sedalia area, of which Ray Lippard is district manager, were guests. In a membership campaign for official AAA service stations in the territory of the Automobile Club of Missouri during 1955, commemorating the 40th anniversary of the founding of emergency road service in 1915 by Matt F. Morse, now president of the Automobile Club of Missouri, three men in Lippard's district were among the first ten, with one of them, Homer A. Wilson, Warrensburg, on highway intersection of Highways 50 and 13, top man. Wilson secured 43 members.

Virgil Bacon of the Bacon Conoco Station, 600 South Osage, ranked seventh in the state and with Wilson was honored at the dinner, being presented with a gift. Bacon obtained 13 memberships.

The third man in Lippard's district in the first ten was Roy Williamson of Clinton, ranking fifth, and was presented his gift on Monday night at a similar meeting at Clinton.

Lippard, who had already received a trip to Florida for the outstanding record of his area, was also presented a gift Tuesday night. The territory in which the Sedalia area competed is the entire state of Missouri including St. Louis and Kansas City, two counties in Kansas and 11 in Illinois.

Serving as toastmaster of the evening was Ray Lippard, who introduced R. E. Matthews, St. Louis, manager emergency road service department, who presented the gifts.

Stassen Tells Of Eisenhower Peace Policy

Sees Iron Curtain
Reduced to Rusty
Screen by Doctrine

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Harold E. Stassen spoke today of development of an Eisenhower doctrine for peace "in this H-bomb age" and envisioned peaceful reduction of the Soviet Iron Curtain "to a rusty screen."

Stassen, special assistant to President Eisenhower on disarmament problems, sounded optimistic about chances for improvement of East-West relations in prepared excerpts of a speech for Rotary International's 47th national convention.

He said the visit this month to Russia by Gen. Nathan F. Twining, Air Force chief of staff, "may fit in to the growing trend" toward better relations.

"It should neither be exaggerated nor underestimated but it is inherently an act of mutual openness which could not have occurred as recently as one year ago before the summit conference at Geneva," Stassen said.

Stassen's optimism regarding the chances for disarmament and an enduring peace has not always been shared by Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles. In his speech today, Stassen said:

"It is my view that there is gradually developing out of the President's initiative in this H-bomb age, an Eisenhower doctrine that may be as significant for peace and progress in the world in the next half century or more as the Monroe Doctrine has been to this Western Hemisphere in the past century."

This time the courtesy awards were given to two men, but two of the best-known and best-liked men in the city of Sedalia, Clarence N. Farley, who for the past 32 years has been selling stamps at the stamp window at the post office, and Charlie King, the familiar figure for many years around the theatres of Sedalia.

The courtesy award committee from the Chamber of Commerce composed of Emory Bowman, chairman, Mrs. Chet Wright, Robert Johnson, Harry Naugel, director of the retail division under which the courtesy award committee comes and Jack Faber, executive manager of the Chamber of Commerce, first visited Mr. Farley.

"We are here," Bowman told Mr. Farley, "to present you with the courtesy award."

"What for?" questioned Farley. "For the way you treat the public, always being nice to everybody," replied Bowman.

"That's my duty," came the answer, but nevertheless he was pleased to be selected as a courtesy award winner.

Farley lives at 1605 West Ninth. He has a wife and three daughters, Miss Grace Farley, Miss Helen Farley and Mrs. Carl Johnson. A fourth daughter died several years ago. He has three grandchildren, too, of whom he is very proud, Floyd Wesley Collins, and Ann and Jim Johnson.

Farley has worked under four postmasters, W. M. Johns, Ed Mullaley, A. L. Bohling and the present postmaster, Maurice Hogan.

He was born in Pettis County near Beaman, and before going into the post office was a clerk in the Allen Chasoff store and in Rosenthal's. He worked four years at the Missouri Pacific Shops, too.

Since going into the post office he has been at the same window most of the time and has sold stamps and taken care of parcel post packages, always with a smile and a friendly word, winning friends day by day with everyone who came to the window.

The same thing is the policy of Charlie King at the Fox Theatre.

"He is our good will ambassador," says Joe Ruddick, manager of the theatre. "Everybody knows

House Demos Quickly Split Over Issue

Eisenhower Informs
Newsmen Aid Cut
Would Be Tragic

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower pleaded today for Congress to vote the foreign aid money he asked. The House Democratic leadership quickly split on the issue.

Eisenhower told his news conference it would be tragic if Congress doesn't support his foreign aid program.

In rapid succession then: House Speaker Rayburn of Texas, said he would back a move to restore 600 million dollars to the President's request for $4,900,000,000 in foreign aid funds.

But Chairman Richards (D-SC) of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, announced he will stand behind the $1,109,000,000 cut his group recommended.

The Rayburn-Richards developments foreshadowed a major battle as the House began consideration of the program aimed at bolstering free world countries against communism.

Rayburn told newsmen he thinks chances for restoring 600 million dollars in the House are "pretty good" if the President puts his whole oar in and we (the Democratic leaders) do "too."

Rayburn appeared to be speaking in stronger terms than Eisenhower, who told his news conference there should be a restudy of aid for Yugoslavia.

Rayburn also spoke out against growing House sentiment for an end to U. S. aid to Yugoslavia and other countries which some critics say are swinging closer to the Soviet camp.

Eisenhower apparently won a measure of agreement at a bipartisan conference last night with House leaders.

Half of 1946 School Bonds Are Now Retired

The Sedalia Board of Education burned $40,000 in bonds, granted a contract to Potts Construction Co., accepted the low bids on numerous school supplies for the school year of 1956-57 and acknowledged a letter from the state, classifying Sedalia schools as Triple A at its regular meeting Tuesday night.

Burning of the bonds represented the half-way mark in retiring the $800,000 bond issue voted in 1946.

Potts Construction Co. was granted a contract, as low bidder, to put a new roof on Jefferson School. Other bidders were Cramer and Schrader Construction Co. and Sievers Roofing Co.

Bids were received from several firms on numerous items of supplies for the next school and the board voted to accept the low bids.

Arthur J. Morgan, certified public accountant, was hired to make the annual audit of the school accounts.

The resignation of William Burlingame, mathematics teacher at Smith-Cotton, was accepted by the board.

The State Department of Education pointed out in its letter classifying the schools as Triple A, that a requirement for Triple A schools is the establishment of a kindergarten.

Ike Is Said Planning Own Aid Appeal

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower was reported planning a personal public appeal for his foreign aid program today while House leaders mapped strategy on restoring part of his hard hit money request.

Eisenhower apparently won a measure of agreement at a bipartisan conference with House leaders last night that the House Foreign Affairs Committee cut too deeply in whacking $1,099,000,000 from his $4,900,000,000 program.

Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio), one of the five Republicans and five Democrats who attended the conference, reported he "said he ought to tell the people how he felt before the Congress acts."

House Republican Leader Martin of Massachusetts quoted Eisenhower as saying it would be "dangerous to national security" to make a billion-dollar cut in the program designed to bolster the free world against communism.

Martin said this was also the view of Secretary of State Dulles and Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, who attended the 1 1/2-hour conference.

House Speaker Rayburn of Texas said afterward he thinks the committee cut was too large. So did Rep. McCormack of Massachusetts, House Democratic leader.

But there apparently was no decision on just how much money the leaders might ask a reluctant House to restore, nor was Eisenhower said to have mentioned a specific amount.

The Missouri State Elks Association executive board has picked Jefferson City as the site for the association's fall meeting, Oct. 19-21.

Argentine Action Seen As Opening Of Reorganization

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—President Pedro Aramburu's removal of the Argentine army's two top commanders was seen today as the opening move in a sweeping reorganization of government posts.

Informed sources said Aramburu wants to deflate the military influence, restore democracy and streamline the top-heavy bureaucracy inherited from former dictator Juan Peron.

Two generals who played key roles in the revolution that overthrew Peron lost their posts. They were Lt. Gen. Julio A. Lagos and Brig. Gen. Roberto Tomas Dalton.

Maj. Gen. Francisco Jose Zerdia succeeded Lagos as army commander in chief. Dalton, Army chief of staff, was tapped to become ambassador to Peru.

The changes were seen as a concession to younger officers who insist that many of the older commanders support totalitarian rule and only turned against Peron at the last minute.

Stevenson Supporters Win Four Delegates

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—New York Democratic leaders' hopes of presenting complete support for Gov. Averell Harriman at the party's presidential convention sailed out the window today as at least four Adlai Stevenson supporters forced their way into the state's delegation.

While Harriman will have the overwhelming majority of New York's 98 convention votes in his pocket, four pro-Stevenson men won convention delegate seats in the New York primary. Two others claimed victory over Harriman backers as vote counting continued.

Two of the upset victors wired Stevenson they would be with him "on the first ballot and until you are nominated."

Elsewhere on the primary election front, virtually all incumbent candidates for renomination to seats in Congress and the State Legislature won.

Senator Expects Passage of Bill For SS Change

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Smathers (D-Fla.) said today he believes the Senate will vote to allow eligible women to draw Social Security retirement benefits at age 62.

Smathers said in an interview he thinks the vote on a proposal to set up a new Social Security disability program will be "real close."

A Social Security bill passed by the House a year ago would have established a program of benefits for persons permanently and totally disabled at age 50 or above. It also would have allowed women to draw Social Security benefits at age 62. The present minimum is 65 for men and women.

The Senate Finance Committee, following the urging of the Eisenhower administration, stripped from the bill the disability provisions and voted to permit benefits at 62 only for widows—not single working women or wives of retired men. Smathers, who serves on the committee, opposed these moves.

A number of Democrats have said they will seek to restore the House provisions.

Senate debate on the bill, one of the few remaining major measures due for consideration this year, is scheduled to start tomorrow. But no votes are expected before next week, and final action may come even later.

Eisenhower Calls On Religious Leaders

NEW YORK (AP)—President Eisenhower has praised a call for religious leaders to take the lead on a local level in treating "social and group tensions as they arise."

The National Conference of Christians and Jews urged local action on the problem in a recent "message to the American people." Eisenhower's response was made public by the conference yesterday.

"The message to the American people . . . is creative and constructive in its proposal that our religious leaders take the initiative in calling together concerned citizens on a local basis, to treat social and group tensions as they arise," Eisenhower said.

"Problems of such magnitude as American race relations and intercultural good will and cooperation can be dealt with most effectively on the moral and spiritual plane," the President said. "Courageous action by the leaders of the three great religious traditions of our country is basic to all other steps that must be taken."

A rest between wearings adds to the life of foundation garments. A good rule to follow is "one to wear, one to wash, and one to spare."

Marilyn Graves Represents US Youth at Paris Meeting

By HILARY DAVIES
AP Newsfeatures

Representing eight million young people—at a time adolescents get more than their fair share of brickbats from the older generation—is quite a responsibility. It was one that fell recently on the willing shoulders of 19-year-old Marilyn Graves of Hebron, Miss., who was chosen to represent America's girls between the ages of 12 and 20 at an International Conference of Youth in Paris.

Marilyn, whose home is a 260-acre corn, cotton and beef-producing farm, was chosen as "all-round American girl" on the strength of her qualifications as a homemaker and community leader. This is not the first time national recognition has come her way. She already has been named Miss Young America in 4-H for her work with that group, and has traveled for them throughout the country, giving 230 speeches and appearing on TV and radio programs.

Aim of the informal conference was to get young people from all over the world together on a friendly basis to exchange information and opinions.

Also attending the conference were 20 French girls and delegates from 19 other countries, among them Great Britain, Germany, Japan, Israel, Egypt, Sweden, Holland, Belgium and the Cameroons.

Their Parisian assignments included meeting Rene Coty, President of the Republic, and the mayor of Paris, and their studies of French life took them from art galleries to farms, and from museums to the homes of ordinary French families.

Discussions between the delegates ranged from politics, economics, national traditions and customs to lipstick and dating.

Marilyn found herself the object of the majority of questions, as the girls had an overwhelming interest in America. Most of their knowledge had been acquired from American movies, and they had some strange illusions which Marilyn was quick to dispel. She was asked such questions as: "Are all American buildings skyscrapers?" "Is all the country industrial?" "Are there any poor people?"

All of them expressed a desire to visit America, and several of them had active plans to do so.

Many were surprised to learn that she came from a farm. Her good clothes (which she makes herself), her dress sense and her education told them that she came from a reasonably wealthy family—yet in their countries farming is synonymous with poverty.

Marilyn herself learned this from her visits to French farms. She recalls: "The farmers were poor, their land seems badly kept, and their equipment is primitive compared with ours. The country villages are depressed-looking and often without electricity."

She found European girls less ambitious, less dress, education, and career conscious than the average American girl.

The conference convinced Marilyn that this is a fine way to insure better understanding and friendship between nations whose outlook and customs differ vastly.

She returned with the names and addresses of all the delegates and will send them each a little souvenir of America. In return she will receive a small present from each of them.

She also returned with some mementoes of the lighter side of the trip, including a gold ball dress designed for her by Parisian designer Lanvin, and a scarf given to her by Grace Kelly when she visited Monaco.

A student of home economics at Mississippi State College for Women, Marilyn hopes to have her own

TV program when she graduates.

These plans may be postponed, if a mooted exchange trip to study farming in Europe materializes next year.

The Family Car Needs Extra Cleaning With Summer Use

By KAY SHERWOOD
NEA Staff Writer

With school out and summer in, the family auto takes on some of the aspects of a home on wheels and is a likely candidate for routine housekeeping. The kids and their pals pile in for a spin to the drive-in; who knows who dripped ice cream all over the back seat?

Next, they're off to the park for a picnic and back again, with a full load of burrs and twigs grinding its way into the floor covering. And when the oldsters open the windows to enjoy the breezes, ashes from an overflowing tray swirl around their heads.

I'm no fussbudget, but I've rarely seen anything that can look disorderly faster than the pale pastel plastic interior of a car in heavy family use.

Happily, when car interiors became lighter and brighter they also them do a thorough job. If there's an electric outlet handy, use the vacuum cleaner and its attachments to rout the dust that settles under the front seat, in the trunk compartment and in the crevices around the seats as well as on the floor coverings.

Ash trays, all of them, should be removed, emptied and scrubbed out to keep them fresh. The dashboard, inside of the doors and all knobs and dials will need the soap-and-water cleaning. So will the steering wheel.

Plastic upholstery comes clean fast with soap or detergent, but stubborn spots may need a light scrubbing with a little scouring powder. Rubber floor mats can be scrubbed with a brush.

If the family uses the car as a sort of pick-up truck, remind them to keep sharp, heavily soiled and spillable freight off the seats.

The upholstery is tough but it CAN be gouged or pierced. If this happens, damage is difficult to repair.

became easier to clean. Washable slipcovers, too, can save nonwashable upholstery from some of the spots and spills.

Keeping the jalopy spruce inside-and-out is not only a matter of pride. It will prolong the presentable appearance (in case you're contemplating a trade-in). Sometimes it can become a safety factor, as when windshields, mirrors and headlights are freed of vision-dimming soil.

In the absence of special preparations for specific car-cleaning jobs, remember that mild soap suds and warm water can be used safely and effectively. If a windshield is heavily spotted with squashed bugs, let the suds set for a few minutes before rinsing them off.

If care of the car will be one of the children's chores, make a checklist of places not to overlook. Also list materials to use to help

Seek Ideas For 1957 Garden With Caution

By HENRY PREE
Written for NEA Service

While you're toiling or struggling with your garden this season, you should also be making careful notes and tucking away new ideas for next year.

Most gardens can use more varieties of early material and a greater diversity of the standard kinds. Observations and notes made in spring will prove invaluable later when you are planning next year's purchases.

The keen plantsman always labels as he plants. He does not rely upon his memory to record the plant material in his yard and garden.

As a rule, visitors to gardens are an inquisitive race who must know everything about what they see, especially if a plant is conspicuously pretty or out of the ordinary. A label which is legible and convenient will last a long time and is not injurious to the plant. Labels aren't pretty, but we need them.

Perhaps you were able to pick up some helpful pointers on pruning from this spring's gardening. Pruning of early flowering shrubs should be performed right after blooming. This pruning will give the plant plenty of time to form flowering buds before the fall. Late pruning may remove some of the started buds on the older growth.

In many flowering trees and shrubs the pruning can be in the form of judicious removal of flowers for bouquets. Forsythia, pussy willow and lilacs are most used to cut flowers but other kinds are benefited by the same treatment in pruning.

Feeding of the shrub border should be attended to. It is during the early summer that the buds for the next year are initiated and a lack of proper feeding may affect the quantity and quality of bloom.

In general a good balanced fertilizer should meet the needs of most plants. If bloom has been shy, then a larger amount of phosphate in the fertilizer might be indicated if growth is otherwise normal.

Bulbs and all other early blooming plants should be fertilized during the active period of growth to assure continued productivity. When the bulbs and the buds of woody plants are formed for next year the flowers are already present in embryo and so the plant must be watered and fertilized and given the best conditions during that period even though the bloom has passed.

Don't cut the foliage of spring flowering bulbs until it has ripened. This is the time of year when they are storing food for next year's bloom. A complete fertilizer worked in around them will help.

Watch out for iris borers. Spraying or dusting every 10 days with

Bus Boycotts Are Continued In Two Cities

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Negro bus boycotts continued in two Southern cities today in the wake of a ruling by a three-judge federal court panel that racial segregation on one of the bus lines was unconstitutional.

A Negro spokesman said the boycott would go on in Montgomery, Ala., at least until a formal court order was issued carrying out the decision. A boycott also was in progress at Tallahassee, Fla.

Rep. Adam Clayton Powell (D-NY) said 12 persons, "white and Negro," would meet in New York Saturday to consider whether the "time is ripe" for a nationwide program of passive resistance similar to the two bus boycotts.

The Negro congressman revealed plans for the meeting while speaking at commencement exercises at Morehouse College in Atlanta yesterday.

The City Commission at Delray Beach, Fla., voted 4-1 yesterday to take steps to have the entire Negro district excluded from the city limits of that resort town 47 miles north of Miami.

No violence has been reported in the city, but racial tension has mounted in the wake of attempts by Negroes to be allowed to use beaches and municipal swimming pools. The town has about 6,500 white persons and about 2,000 Negroes.

At Memphis, Tenn., the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People filed a federal court suit asking that bus segregation laws in Tennessee be declared unconstitutional.

Brain Surgery Alters Little Girl's Nature

CHICAGO (AP)—An operation has transformed a little girl from a "brat" to a cheerful child.

Doctors, in making the switch, removed half her brain.

Surgeons at Wesley Memorial Hospital described the case at a news conference. They said the unnamed 6-year-old blonde youngster had sleeping sickness at the age of 1. Her left side was affected by partial paralysis.

She became a "brat," mis-treated others, shouted at her mother and destroyed toys. She suffered 10 to 12 convulsions each day. She was taken out of school because of her ugly behavior and taken to Wesley Hospital.

Medical investigators decided that half her brain was responsible for her behavior. Tests showed the right half of the brain and skull had failed to grow.

So, in a 4-hour, 35-minute operation May 14, the right half of the brain was removed. Generally, the right half of the brain controls the left side of the body.

Now, the doctors reported, the healthy side of the brain is taking over additional functions, and the child's senses are as acute as before the operation.

Partial paralysis still is apparent, they said, but improvement is expected with the passage of time. She has no more convulsions, they added, but does have a new personality.

The girl was described as pretty, cooperative and cheerful, and of normal intelligence.

Hal Boyle's Column— Military Men Feel Certain Normandy Landing Is History

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—A dozen years after the Normandy landing, the mightiest amphibious operation in history, many military men feel sure of one thing—mankind will never see another one like it.

The spectacle of massed navies, bombarding a foreign shore as they unleash thousands of attacking troops, is probably a thing of the past. It is almost as outmoded as a clash between knights on horseback.

The amphibious operation is one of the oldest forms of war, as old as the first war canoe that landed behind a surprised enemy.

It is also one of the most imaginative and difficult of maneuvers to execute. It is always a titanic gamble, made perilous by hidden reefs and the whims of wind and weather.

When an amphibious operation succeeds, it often succeeds brilliantly. But when it fails, it is often an irretrievable disaster.

The best known example of an amphibious landing that failed is, of course, the dismal fate of "the Invincible Armada" of Spain.

In 1588 proud Philip II sent 130 ships to humble upstart Britain. They carried 7,000 sailors and 17,000 troops.

The British weren't quite the underdogs they have sometimes been made out to be. They engaged the Spanish Armada with 197 ships, although many were small vessels. But they had superior seamanship, fought at long range, and were better organized than the loosely-knit Spanish.

After a series of disastrous battles and storms, only 54 ships of the Armada were able to reach home, and Spain began going downhill as a naval power. The whole operation had been poorly planned.

The Normandy landing will perhaps go down in the textbooks as the classic example of a successful amphibious operation.

Russian Embassy Still Shows Stalin Picture

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two visitors to the Russian Embassy say portraits of Joseph Stalin still are on display in a reception room there.

David A. Ziegenbein of Detroit and Douglas Brown of Dearborn, Mich., both 18, were startled to see the pictures hanging in a second-floor room as they took a guided tour through the Embassy yesterday.

The late Soviet Premier has been under bitter attack by Nikita S. Khrushchev, Communist party boss, and others who succeeded him at the head of the Russian government.

The two young men said an Embassy aide explained Stalin was a great man, although the group now in power did not approve of everything the generalissimo did. Ziegenbein said the aide compared factions of the Soviet Communist party to political parties in this country.

Miss Phillips had planned to go to Hawaii for the wedding, but Ashley has been assigned to Alaska for the next four months.

The wedding will be performed at the First Baptist Church with the Rev. Charles Foley, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, officiating.

Just as though the bridegroom were present, the bride will walk down the aisle; her father, Charles M. Phillips, will give her in marriage, and the bridegroom's father, Harold Ashley, will place the ring on the bride's finger for his son.

As the participants here and Ashley in Honolulu talk over a telephone a microphone will enable all in the church to hear.

Miss Phillips plans to go to Honolulu after Ashley finishes his Alaskan assignment.

Medicine In A Free Country

Prior to the beginning of this century history records deaths at early ages of many great and near great persons. What statistics are preserved reveal that life expectancy for a child born in this country in 1900 was less than 50 years.

There were notable exceptions, of course, but by and large people died much earlier in life than they do today. Based on averages a child born today has a life expectancy of 70 years, a 40 per cent increase in little more than half a century.

This development didn't come about of itself. Along with the so-called Age of Miracles in science, transportation, commerce, inventions, etc., there has been equal if not greater acceleration of progress in the medical field.

Disease after disease has been conquered. Infant mortality has been reduced. Frontiers of medical knowledge have been pushed back. Medical schools produce more and more physicians—and better prepared physicians. Standards of hospital care have been raised. There has been outstanding achievement in every phase of the healing arts.

America's progress in so many fields—medicine in particular—has come about in an atmosphere and a system of freedom. The doctor is not an employee of the state; the patient is not a pawn to be shuttled about according to a rule book, as he would be under socialized medicine. In America the stress is on the value and freedom and independence of the individual.

But there is one thing to remember. These freedoms we have cannot withstand the everlasting pounding of the dissidents who want us to abrogate those freedoms. Lovers of freedom must put up resistance to mob rule, minority rule, and dictatorial assumption by individuals.

While we bask in complacency of a prosperous economy minorities are resorting to all sorts of tricks, including recurrent acts of violence, to invite state controls and thus encourage thinking of the people to believe this is the only way out of an unresolvable dilemma.

If we expect to live longer lives and healthier lives than our forefathers did (and as we are doing today) then each day some contribution must be made to preserve the freedoms of action which have contributed so much to the advancement of medical and other knowledge.

Free men achieve only in an atmosphere of freedom.

Washington Merry-Go-Round—

Adlai Passes Chance to Side-Track Estes

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON—Most political observers agree that the bitter primary battles between Stevenson and Kefauver have seriously hurt both candidates and increased the chances of a Democratic deadlock at Chicago with a dark horse emerging as the winner.

Tragedy is that this could have been avoided. Inside fact is that early in the presidential jockeying, well before either candidate had even announced, Oscar Chapman, former secretary of the interior and a friend of both men, went to see Adlai Stevenson and suggested that an ideal Democratic ticket would be Stevenson for president, Kefauver for vice-president. But Stevenson wouldn't buy it.

"It would alienate too many other men who want to run for vice-president," he said in brief. And he named Mayor Wagner of New York, Attorney General Pat Brown of California, Governor Clements of Tennessee and Senator Humphrey of Minnesota as among the vice-presidential hopefuls.

"If I was committed to Kefauver for vice-president I would get no support from any of them," Stevenson explained.

He went on to say that he would certainly be open-minded about Kefauver for vice-president. But then he added:

"If Estes gets into these primaries and makes me spend a lot of time and money fighting for the nomination," said Adlai, "then I'll never take him on the ticket."

This left Estes with a tails-Stevenson-wins, heads-Kefauver loses alternative. He decided to enter the primaries.

People-To-People Friendship

The importance of President Eisenhower's idea of a committee of private citizens to promote people-to-people friendship was illustrated just two weeks ago when a group of Americans and Frenchmen dedicated a French-American hospital at St. Lo, the point in the German lines where Gen. Omar Bradley's troops broke through after the Normandy landing.

There has been so much petty bickering between French and American politicians of late, that a lot of Americans have forgotten the basic people-to-people friendship existing between the two countries. It was very evident at the hospital dedication ceremony, however.

Claire McCollough, of Lancaster, Pa., who made a special flight to Paris as special representative of the Friendship Train committee reported that sentiment toward the American people was deep and friendly; that the French particularly appreciated the hospital because it was a joint enterprise.

It was not a gift from the U.S. government. The French were too polite to say so, but actually they raised more money for the hospital than did private Americans. Not a penny of U.S. government funds went into the project.

The American who deserves most credit for pushing the hospital is Robert Blake, of the Guaranty Trust Co. in Paris, who could well have been made a member of Eisenhower's Citizen's Committee for People-To-People Friendship.

NOTE—The friendship train money that went into the St. Lo hospital was insurance money paid after the Communists burned down a ware-

ABERDEEN (S.D.) AMERICAN-NEWS: Lovinger's Service Helpful to South Dakota.

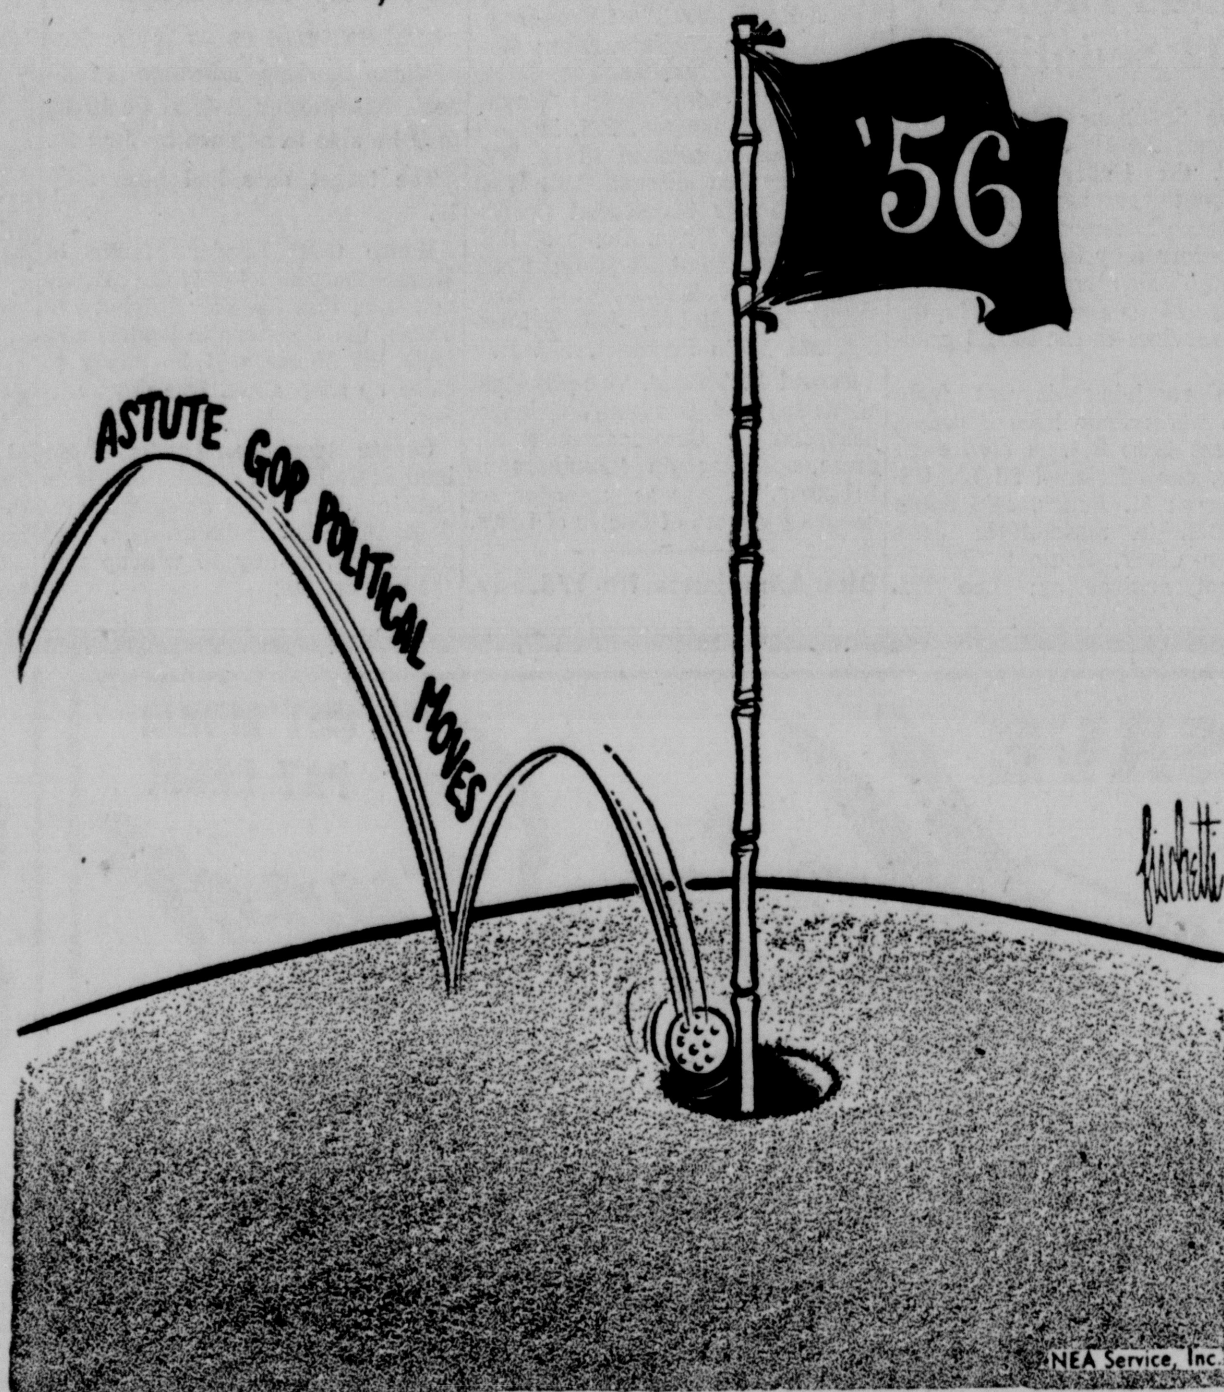

When Dr. Warren Lovinger becomes president of Central Missouri State College at Warrensburg July 1 he will leave in South Dakota many friends grateful for his contributions to Northern State Teachers College.

News that he had resigned to accept his new position in a school more than twice as large as NSTC brought an immediate response from all persons familiar with his record. In effect they all said: "He has done an outstanding job for NSTC and for education in South Dakota."

This expression of appreciation for his assistance to education in Aberdeen and in the state as a whole came from people who know him and from people who know of him through the record of progress at NSTC that has been apparent since he came here in 1951.

The vigor of his youth—he was 35 when he came here—plus the knowledge of the many needs of a growing college helped him lead NSTC through the best period in its history.

Red Confession Technique Is Revealed

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Russians have settled a question which has puzzled Westerners ever since the mid-1930s when Stalin purged thousands of his Communist party comrades.

An astonishing parade of Old Bolsheviks confessed in open court crimes against the state, knowing it meant they were not only signing their own death sentences but giving the whole thing an air of justice.

What made it amazing was that these old-time revolutionists were picturing themselves as betrayers of the Revolution to which they had devoted their lives. Had they really done it? Were they guilty at all?

Had they perhaps been induced through some strange Communist reasoning, into confessing what they had never done even though it doomed them? Had they been hypnotized or drugged? Or what had happened?

Westerners wondered and had no way of knowing. Novelist Arthur Koestler wrote a book, "Darkness at Noon," which gave an explanation that sounded plausible to many people for whom the Communist mentality was strange anyway.

The Old Bolshevik in his story, subjected to endless questioning and suggestion by his inquisitors in the dungeons of Moscow, confessed even though he was innocent. Knowing his own life was ended, he thought it best to confess since the party wanted it and he wanted to do what was good for the party.

This kind of interpretation of what happened in the purges put the whole business on a kind of intellectual plane. It was unacceptable to a lot of realistic people who looked on Koestler as a romantic.

It was hard to believe these Old Bolsheviks hadn't been broken by simple police brutality. Then when the Korean War revealed the Red Chinese brainwashing techniques it seemed possible that was what happened in the purges.

But Communist party boss Khrushchev—in a speech to the party Congress last February—told what did happen to "many thousands of Communists" when Stalin had them arrested in the 1930s.

In that speech—a version of which was obtained by the U.S. State Department and made public this week—Khrushchev said they were beaten and tortured in the "most cruel and barbaric and inhuman way" into confessing.

He said "innocent" Communists broke under the police treatment and charged themselves at the order of their torturers, with "all kinds of grave and unlikely crimes."

Khrushchev gave an example: 98 of the 139 Communists elected to the Central Committee—the party's controlling body—were arrested and shot.

Worse still, Khrushchev said that in beating a confession out of one man, they forced him falsely to accuse others. Then the police grabbed those others, beat confessions out of them, forced them to implicate still others. It was an endless bloody chain.

Khrushchev said Stalin gave instructions on how the arrested men should be treated. The instructions he gave, Khrushchev said, usually were: Beat, beat, and once again, beat.

Khrushchev blew all the Western romantics' high-sound theories about the Moscow purges out of the window. Stalin's police did not waste any time on intellectualism when clubs were more persuasive.

Dr. Jordan Says—

Control That Mosquito Is Pertinent Answer to Malaria

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.

In 1955 the Pan American Sanitary Bureau established a coordination office for a hemisphere malaria eradication program with the headquarters in Mexico City.

Perhaps some readers will scarcely consider this necessary because they may never have come up against malaria-carrying mosquitoes. This, however, is still an important disease afflicting some 300 million annually throughout the world and killing about 3,000,000 as well as constituting a terrible economic burden.

In the past, malaria has been a serious problem in certain sections of the United States though now in most areas it is well under control.

However, residents of North America are traveling more and more so that they should be as much interested in eliminating malaria as those who still live in malaria-infested communities.

Malaria is caused by a micro-organism. It is carried by a particular kind of mosquito which first picks up the agent responsible by biting someone who has the disease and then deposits it in the blood of someone else when it bites again.

Without this mosquito (or if the mosquito is prevented from biting people) new cases of malaria would stop. It is this knowledge which has made possible the practically complete conquest of malaria in some parts of the world.

The mosquito can be attacked in a lot of ways. It breeds in stagnant water. This can be drained off or covered with something like kerosene which prevents the mosquito from developing.

Since the discovery of DDT* and other insect poisons, mosquitoes can be killed in their breeding places even more successfully.

If it is not possible to kill all these mosquitoes they can often be prevented from biting. Screens or mosquito nets do this job, though one has to be sure they are tight.

There are several kinds of malaria. During the last war our soldiers, sailors, and marines ran into some, new to us, which were plenty tough.

If the malaria mosquitoes couldn't be killed and couldn't be prevented from biting, as happened in the Solomon Islands and elsewhere, the next best thing was treatment. For this purpose quinine and a chemical known as atabrine, proved about the most useful. Treatment, it is known, should be begun

As Sedalia Sees It—

Social Security Payments Increase In Pettis County

By Esther Van Wagoner Tufty
Democrat-Capitol Washington
Correspondent

WASHINGTON—There's probably more misinformation circulated about Social Security than anything else coming out of Washington which directly now effects almost every working person. (90% of the entire working force of 64 million are now eligible for social security.)

Here are some of the most common misconceptions:

1. That after reaching retirement age (65) all you can earn is $1200 a year to collect any monthly checks. Here's the law:

If a beneficiary is between 65 and 72 years of age and he has yearly earnings of more than $1,200, the number of monthly benefit checks that can be paid depends upon the amount of his total earnings and to some extent on how much work is done in each month.

Example: A 66 year old TV broadcaster works for one month (January) and makes say $2,100 but goes fishing the rest of the 11 months of that year. He would collect $108.50 (if eligible for the maximum for single person) every month except January.

2. That automatically the checks roll in when the beneficiary reaches 65. He or she should file claim with local Social Security office proving age to expedite payments and check up on account.

3. That after reaching the age of 72, if the person continues to work, he not only gets benefit checks but stops paying social security taxes. Not true, he gets the checks all right, but if he continues on a job covered by Social Security the tax comes out of his pay-check as usual.

Also great misunderstanding exists why those over 65 (like those of 72 and over) can not collect their checks no matter how much money they can manage to make. To curb their earning capacity is said "to put a premium on laziness." With more people living beyond 65 the need to keep them productive is seen as important to the national economy. But the Social Security Administration estimated "that the cost would be prohibitive probably more than $2.4 billion a year."

A growing number of Pettis Co. residents are receiving Social Security benefits. On December 31, 1954, there were 1,425 persons in the county who received Social Security checks every month totaling $62,523.

One year later, on December 31, 1955, this jumped to $77,045 each month with 1,682 persons in the county receiving benefits.

At the end of the past year, 1,040 retired persons or their widows were receiving $54,982 in benefits because of age. Some 243 wives and dependent husbands got $6,636. In addition, 225 children were collecting $7,730 in benefits under the survivor's insurance provision of the law.

Also 122 widows or widowers were getting $5,378; 43 mothers with children under 18 were receiving $1,803 and 9 dependent parents got $466 in benefits during the month of December.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D.D.

Mystery books have come to be nicknamed "Whodunits" because the stories are supposed to lead us through a maze of confusing incidents, sprinkled with clues to help the reader deduce the culprit's identity.

The plot reveals that a variety of human beings have sinned against their fellow men. However, one or more persons have committed sins which civil law will not condone. The end is reached when the greatest sinner of the cast is convicted or about to be convicted for his sins against humanity.

These mental gymnastics doubtless keep the mind alert to the strange ways of man or of some people. However, the unknown ways of men always seem to follow their pattern of duplicated errors.

The mysteries of God are in great contrast to the mysteries of human crime. God's ways are difficult to follow because we are so accustomed to look for evil that we do not expect to find an end of good.

God's ways are strange to us. He puts love ahead of cleverness. He puts faith above suspicion. He offers forgiveness instead of conviction. He gives beauty in return for ugliness.

The way of God is eternal life instead of a way ending in death and oblivion. The mysteries of God are built on giving rather than taking . . . rewards instead of punishment . . . love in exchange for hate.

We would do well to read more of the mysteries of God than the "Whodunits" of crime.

Home Missionaries

The average Protestant home missionary's lot in this country is often not a happy one. He and his wife may suffer from low morale because of physical wants, because of financial difficulties, and because they lack a sense of belonging to a group. Most of the missionaries are well educated and prepared to face the hardships of sacrificial living, but sometime even they weaken in their Christian zeal for service because their talents for budget balancing and the need for a new pair of shoes is not met by the "lilies of the field."

The Christian worker overseas gets some adventure and glamour. He now can sometimes hop around his area in an airplane and his work in a foreign field seems easier to measure in spiritual converts. The home missionary wears out shoe leather in a slum clearance project or gets around as best he can in a sparsely populated rural area.

These facts appeared in a recent survey covering data from 819 home missionaries in 14 major Protestant denominations. The denominations no doubt will be informed of the plight of their home missionaries when the annual budgets are presented and their members may be induced to swell the benevolent side of the church envelope. There is great need for spreading the Christian gospel in this country. Missionaries have to eat and cover themselves if they are going to help others.

Even French Peasants Call The Beach by Army Name

OMAHA BEACH, France (AP)—Even to the French peasants who live nearby, this beach where the Allies landed 12 years ago today is known as Omaha.

Their pronunciation may be different, but they have learned the name from serious-faced visitors who have come in search of graves and from old soldiers seeking spots burned into their memory of D-Day.

Signs now direct visitors to points of interest along the landing areas. The signs are in French but two invasion names have stuck—Omaha and Utah—the Normandy beaches where the might of the Allies struck to drive back the forces of Nazi Germany.

Today's 12th anniversary of D-Day found residents and visitors again making the annual pilgrimage to the channel-washed strip of brown sand.

Prison Expert Says Inmates May Support Families in Future

ST. LOUIS (AP)—An expert on prisons says it will become common practice someday for prisoners to earn enough in the penitentiary to support their families at home.

Isaac Gurman, executive director of the St. Louis Bureau for Men, said wages may also be large enough to permit a prisoner to pay back to the state a reasonable amount for board and room and to build a savings toward the time when he is released.

In an address to the Missouri Assn. for Social Welfare, Gurman suggested legislation compelling state agencies to purchase goods made at Missouri penitentiary.

Man 'Lifts' Too Much

ST. LOUIS (AP)—It was Kenneth Dobler's job to lift things at the warehouse.

Detective Sgt. Emmett Hahn said Dobler, a fork-lift operator at Sears, Roebuck & Co., has admitted "lifting" about $6,000 worth of things there since 1949.

Sgt. Hahn said the stolen goods included a furnace, a 30-gallon water heater, a 300-gallon septic tank, an electric range, copper tubing, soil pipe, fire brick, wall cabinets and 42 bundles of asphalt shingles.

Sgt. Hahn said Dobler recently finished a new house and he took a power mower home Monday.

Dobler was charged with theft of the $59 mower.

Jet Pilot Relives Escape From Plane In Drugged State

BURBANK, Calif. (AP)—A test pilot has virtually relived in a drug-induced trance his dramatic escape from a supersonic jet fighter, the Los Angeles Times said today.

Herman (Fish) Salmon, chief test pilot for Lockheed, underwent a two-hour experiment in an effort to develop all facts in connection with the tense crowded moments prior to his bailout last year from an F104 Starfighter.

The pilot, given sodium pentothal, the so-called "truth serum," lay on a couch in a darkened room and recounted his experience. Tape recorders were used by his questioners.

So vivid was one of his recollections that he said sharply: "Ouch! I hurt my arm."

His only injury was a badly bruised elbow.

Salmon was testing the armament of the F104. He bailed out

Late Rally Gives Athletics 5-3 Win

Bill Arnold
Route to Notch
First Victory

Trailing 3 to 2 going into the last of the eighth inning, the Sedalia Athletics bounced back with a 3-run rally and went on to defeat Columbia by a 5-3 count at Liberty Park Tuesday night.

"Sonny" Thomas started the Athletic rally with a Texas league single to left. Don Broadus advanced Thomas to second on a neat bunt down the first base line and was safe when the second sacker failed to cover first.

It appeared the Sedalia effort might fall short after Bill Arnold fanned attempting to sacrifice with a two strike count and "Bones" Morgan watched a third strike whiz by, but Thomas broke for third on the pitch and Catcher Jerry Whiteside's throw went into left field and Thomas scored with the tying counter.

Bill Dey sent a hot grounder to Hill, the Columbia second sacker, but the ball trickled through and Broadus came home with the leading run on the error and Dey took second. Ralph Fall collected his third hit of the evening, a line shot to center and Dey scored. That was enough for the Sedalians.

Bill Arnold went the route 'or the A's in his first mound appearance of the season. The fast-balling righthander was hit hard, but managed to hold the Columbia club at bay in the clutch. Arnold yielded ten hits, struck out six and issued an equal number of walks.

Jim Smith hurled fine ball for the Columbians, holding the usually hard hitting Sedalians to six hits. Until the eighth the A's managed only three hits from Smith's slants. Ten Athletics struck out and eight drew free passes.

The A's jumped out to a one run lead in the opening frame without collecting a single hit. Walks to Dey, Fall and Schumaker loaded the bases and Ed Russell's ground ball enabled Dey to score. The A's picked up another marker in the third when Morgan drew a walk and scored on Ralph Fall's double to deep left center.

Columbia came back in the fourth to knot the score at 2-2. In the seventh they gathered three hits, a walk and a Sedalia error to take the lead.

Ralph Fall led the Sedalia attack with three safeties, while Haag paced the Columbia batsmen with three doubles.

Snead Thinks Chances 'Stink' For US Open

NEW YORK (P)—Sam Snead, who has blown half a dozen chances to win the National Open Golf Championship, has a single word to describe his prospect in the annual tournament next week.

"It's 'stinking,'" Snead said. "If I could get my touch on the greens the way I've done the times (three) I've won the Masters and some other tournaments, I'd figure my odds pretty good," the rhythm man from Virginia said. "But I'm stinking."

Snead checked into town today for defense of his Round Robin championship at Wykagyl in nearby Westchester County, starting Thursday. After Sunday's final rounds, he sets off for Rochester, N.Y., and the 56th annual Open June 14-16.

Snead said his own personal choice for the Open title is 26-year-old Peter Thomson of Australia.

"Pete has everything it takes to win the Open," he added. "He hits a long, straight ball. He's a heck of a putter. And he's a solid boy, a good competitor."

"The trouble is until he won at Dallas this week he's never been able to win one of our tournaments. I think he was getting a sort of complex. But now that he has finally won this may be just the boost he needs."

Thomson beat Dr. Cary Middlecoff and Gene Littler in a sudden death playoff Monday to win the

Tigers Make the Long Climb Back Up to First Division

By ED WILKS

The Associated Press

It's been a long haul, but Detroit's not-so-lim-d Tigers have the American League by the tail at the moment. They're sprinting along on a seven-game winning streak.

Three weeks ago Manager Bucky Harris had a last-place club. He's still 5 1/2 games out of the lead, but up in the first division and only a skip and a jump out of third.

Every one of the Tigers has put his bat to work in the seven-game success story—longest in the majors this season. Harvey Kuenn, batting .441 in that span, and Ray Boone, at .407, are the big guns.

Kuenn was 3-for-6 and Boone hammered home five runs with a homer, double and two singles in five trips last night on the Tigers outpowered Boston's Red Sox 14-11. Frank House, batting .571 on a part-time basis in Harris' platooning plans in the streak, muscled in with a three-run homer.

New York's first-place lead dwindled to 3 1/2 games, meanwhile, as Kansas City handed the Yankees—who made five errors—their fourth straight defeat 7-4 despite homers by Yogi Berra, Joe Collins and Mickey Mantle, who hit his 21st. Cleveland, with Bob Lemon winning his seventh, took over second by belting Baltimore 8-3. Chicago's White Sox slipped to third with a 3-1 loss at Washington.

Things are much cozier in the National. Pittsburgh, despite a 7-3 defeat at Chicago, has a four-percentage-point hold on the lead over Cincinnati, which trounced Philadelphia 9-4. It's a virtual three-way tie for first, with St. Louis three points back of the Redlegs after beating New York 3-1 while the Brooklyn Dodgers tripped Milwaukee to fourth 6-1 on Roger Craig's two-hitter.

For all their thumping, the Tigers had a ninth-inning scare, as the Red Sox scored six times. Don Buddin socked a three-run homer in the rally off reliever Walt Materson. Billy Klaus and Jackie Jensen also homered for the Sox, off starter Virgil Trucks, who won his second. Bob Porterfielder was the loser.

The A's turned the Yank errors, three by second baseman Billy Martin, into four runs, icing it with three in the seventh before Lou Kretlow started to weaken. The veteran right-hander gave just two hits until the eighth when Mantle, hitting against a defensive shift for the first time, belted a two-run homer—his only hit. Collins homered to lead off the ninth and Little Bobby Shantz came on to finish off the side. And Johnny Kucks lost it.

Lemon, beaten only once in 10 decisions with Baltimore, scattered nine hits while the Indians smacked six doubles along with Earl Averill's two-run homer.

Chuck Stobbs snapped the White Sox streak at three with a four-hitter. Carlos Paula's sacrifice fly and an error gave Washington two in the first off loser Jack Harshman. Paula scored the other after his triple in the third.

The only Milwaukee hits off Craig, now 5-2, were a first-inning homer by Ed Mathews and single by Billy Bruton in the eighth. Warren Spahn lost his fourth straight. Randy Jackson's three-run double put it away in the fourth off reliever Dave Jolly.

Wally Post drove in four runs while belting two homers and rookie Frank Robinson hit a solo homer as the Redlegs kept the pace. Joe Nuxhall went all the way for his second victory. Curt Simmons was the loser.

Wally Moon's two-run triple beat Jim Hearn and the Giants in the sixth as Willard Schmidt, winless since May 8, span a five-hitter. The Cubs walloped Bob Friend, who sought his 10th victory, for five runs with two out in the third as Warren Hacker, winning his first, shut out the Pirates until the ninth, when Frank Thomas homered with two on.

Boyd to Try for 9th Straight Victory In Bout With Savage

CHICAGO (P)—Bobby Boyd, second ranking middleweight contender in Ring Magazine's latest ratings, goes after his ninth straight victory tonight against the fighter who last defeated him, Milo Savage.

The lanky Chicago Negro, who lost to the 30-year-old Savage in New York on April 18, 1955, is an 8-5 favorite in the nationally televised (8 p. m. CST, ABC) 10-round return match at Chicago Stadium.

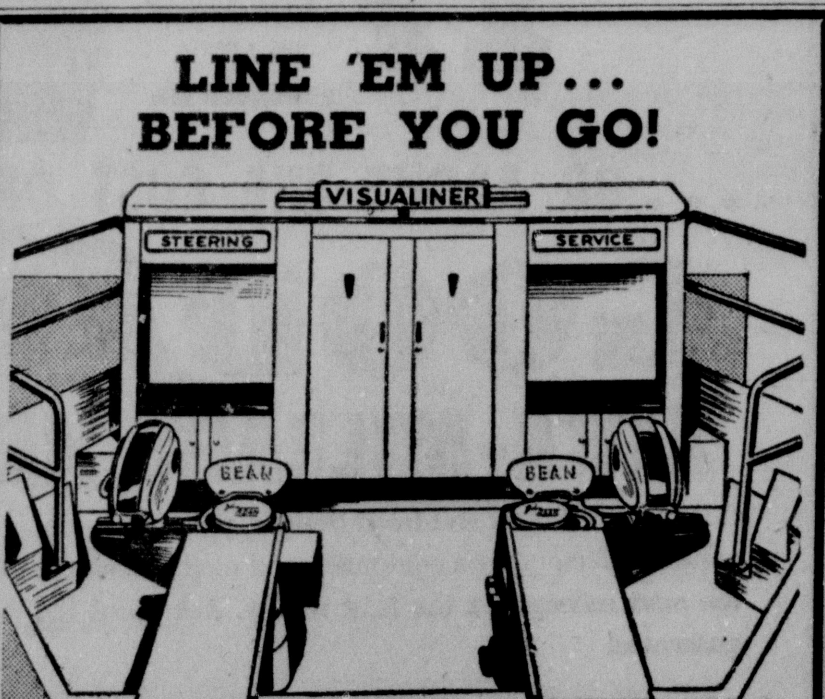

Boyd, 22, has accounted for 21 knockouts in a record of 39-6-2. Savage has scored 19 knockouts in a record of 38-32-9.

Lou Kretlow's Pitching Does Trick for A's

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Lou Kretlow, much traveled 32-year-old Oklahoman, may have found a home for himself on the Kansas City Athletics pitching staff.

The big right hander allowed the first-place Yankees only two hits until the eighth and finished with a 7-4 victory, last night at New York, with some timely relief work by Little Bobby Shantz.

Kretlow posted his third victory and second in nine lifetime decisions with the Yankees.

The fast balling Willard Schmidt limited New York to only five hits and one unearned run last night at St. Louis as the Cardinals made it two straight over the Giants, 3-1, on Wally Moon's two-run sixth inning triple.

Schmidt didn't walk a man, struck out four, and permitted only one New York player to pass first base.

It was Schmidt's first victory since May 8 and third of the season against two defeats.

The Redbirds climbed into a virtual three-way tie for first with Pittsburgh and Cincinnati. Only percentage points separate the three clubs.

Ken Boyer's 14th homer of the season came in the first. Grady Hatton, playing second for sore-shouldered Red Schoendienst, was safe on an error, and Stan Musial singled. Then came Moon's game-winning 410-foot triple to deep center.

The A's scored four unearned runs on five Yankee errors to build a 7-1 lead going into the last of the eighth. Mickey Mantle then slammed his 21st homer, a two-run blast.

When Joe Collins greeted Kretlow with a homer in the ninth, Manager Lou Boudreau called on Shantz, who fanned two men and threw out Andy Carey to end the game.

Reynolds Strokes 81 In State Golf Tournament

Frankie Reynolds, young Sedalia golfer, in the qualifying round of the 49th annual championship tournament at the Missouri State Golf Association at Meadowbrook Country Club, St. Louis, Monday topped the other three Sedalians participating with a score of 81.

Bernard M. Stanfield finished with an 84; Vic Van Dyne 85 and Damon Hieronymus with 89.

Ken Lanning, Rolla bowling alley proprietor, topped the field with 70, one under par.

With a one-stroke margin over his four nearest competitors, Lanning took the No. 1 spot in the first round of match play being held Wednesday.

Normally, the No. 1 position goes to the defending champion, who is exempt from qualifying, but Jim Tom Blair elected to play in the trials so his Jefferson City team would have a chance in the four-man event. Blair shot a 75, and his team finished fourth.

Sharing second in the trials were Bob Barton, University City; Dr. J. Paul Leslie, Jefferson City; Mel Wilke, Glen Echo, and James M. Johnson, Normandie.

4 Babe Ruth Games Scheduled This Week

Four Babe Ruth baseball games will be played this week. Two regular scheduled games will be played at Liberty Park diamond, Wednesday. The first game will be Western Auto against Taysee and the second game will be the Browns against Phillips 66.

There will be two make-up games on Friday. The first game will be Taysee vs. Browns and the second game will be Phillips vs. Western Auto.

Moore Scores TKO in 10th Over Pompey

LONDON (P)—Archie Moore today brushed aside all questions about another defense of his light heavyweight title and said:

"I'm the best heavyweight in the world — and that's the title I am after."

The cagey old fellow from San Diego, Calif., cleared his last hurdle on the way to the crown vacated by Rocky Marciano with a 10th-round TKO of Yolande Pompey of Trinidad in a light heavyweight title fight in London's Harringay Arena last night.

"We had signed contracts for this fight in London so we had to go ahead with it," Moore said.

"Now I want that heavyweight title. I'm entitled to it. Marciano nominated me as his logical successor. Floyd Patterson and Tommy Jackson are fighting Friday. There's talk of a fight against the winner in September. I can't get home soon enough to sort it all out."

Patterson and Jackson hold no terrors for Moore, who says he's 39, is reported to be 42, but who fights like a man of 30.

Charley Jonsson, Moore's manager, said Moore would not think of relinquishing his light heavy title until he has the heavyweight crown under his belt.

Moore let Pompey do most of the work in the early rounds and the Trinidad fighter was ahead on points at the end of the eighth. Then came the ninth and Moore

In the 10th, Moore went in for the kill. He sent Pompey down for counts of eight, nine and eight before Referee Jack Hart stopped the slaughter.

Pompey went to his dressing room with a deep cut over his left eye, another under his right eye and a big mouse over both. Moore was unmarked. Moore weighed 174 1/2. Pompey 171 1/2.

Foreign Dolls Impress This Eligible Male

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Fess Parker, a man of well-chosen words, says he was "very favorably impressed" with the foreign dolls he met on his recent European tour. This may come as a blow to American girls, since Fess is one of the most eligible males in Hollywood, but the lanky Texan was high in his praise of women he met abroad.

"They say that American women are the best groomed in the world," said Fess, "and it's probably true. The European girls do not have the financial or educational advantages that girls in this country do. But they make up for it by doing the most with what they have. English women are supposed to be cold and distant. I didn't get that impression at all. I found them to be very friendly."

He said he plans to return to Europe "as soon as possible." He opined that he thought it better to satisfy his wanderlust before abandoning his bachelorhood.

When he'll be able to get back to Europe is a question. His boss, Walt Disney, has kept Fess working almost steadily for the 21 months he has been under contract. He leaves this week for the Atlanta, Ga., premiere of "The Great Locomotive Chase" and Walt expects to have another picture buzzing for his star this summer.

Fess remarked that his European tour exceeded his expectations, as far as public reaction is concerned.

"The reception I got in England compared very favorably with the enthusiasm I met in American cities during the height of the Davy Crockett period," he observed. "The picture had been playing only a few weeks over there, but the song had been out and was at the top of their hit parade."

The department stores had Davy Crockett trading posts, just like the ones in this country." Fess said the Crockett craze was rampant in Scandinavia and Belgium and was catching on in France and Italy.

Circuit Grand Jury Continues Probing

ST. LOUIS, (AP)—The June term Circuit Court grand jury has been impaneled with instructions to watch progress by police in their investigation of reported payoffs to some police officers by brothel operators.

Circuit Judge Michael J. Scott referred to the payoff inquiry in his only deviation from routine instructions. He told the jury of nine men and three women of urging by their April term predecessors to "insist that the board of police commissioners make a final and complete report of their findings."

Circuit Atty. Edward L. Dowd has turned over to police some statements taken by his office during the lengthy inquiry that led to bribery indictments against three officers.

Several officers have been called for questioning on these statements by Inspector James Thompson's office.

Philippine Students Walk Out on Meeting

BANDUNG, Indonesia (AP)—The Asian-African students conference went on today without the Philippine delegation, which stalked out in protest against Communist domination.

Guillermo C. de Vega, 24, led out his group in the climax of a six-day battle over Red moves to turn the meeting into a political arena.

It had been set up as a "little Bandung" conference pledged to steer clear of political clashes. But an assortment of leftist groups showed up and took control.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The Kentucky School for the Blind has only one high school graduate this year.

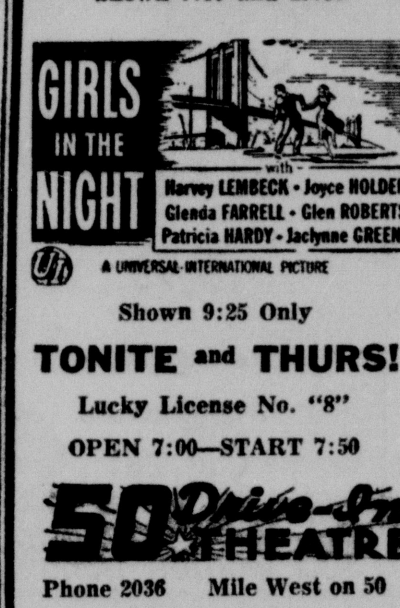

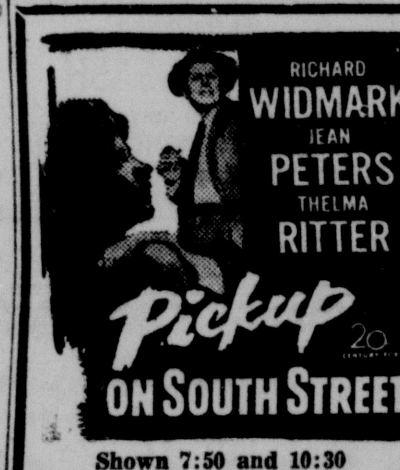

Full commencement exercises are to be held tonight, however, for Miss Caela Mae Warfield of Henderson. Dr. Whitney M. Young, president of Lincoln Institute, will deliver the commencement address.

The number of graduates has been decreasing annually due to the school's policy of integrating its students into local public schools where possible.

Have Visits, Job Changes At Clarksburg

By Mrs. Myrtle Yarnell

CLARKSBURG—Mrs. Ray Miller, Camden, visited her father, Joe B. Powell, while Mr. Miller went on to Columbia.

Mrs. Alice Harris recently became very ill and was taken by ambulance to the home of her son, Lee Harris, in Kansas City.

Cloyd Shea, Clarksburg, has accepted a teaching position in the Higginsville school system. He and his family will move there in August. He will attend school this summer in Warrensburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Fulk, Long Beach, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Winebrenner, San Bernardino, Calif., are spending their vacations here.

The Rev. and Mrs. Wilbur Heile represented the Clarksburg Baptist Church at the Baptist convention in Kansas City. Rev. Ivan Dameron, Clarksburg, also attended, representing Mt. Pleasant Church.

John A. Vouk returned to his home in Little Rock, Ark. Mrs. Vouk and her mother, Mrs. Ona Ruppert, will remain until June 9. Mr. Vouk will return for a few days and then they will all go to Little Rock.

Hot Car!
PHOENIX, Ariz. (P)—John Tripp stopped outside his car because he heard what sounded like a thunderclap. It was a good thing, too.

A 12,000-volt wire had fallen on the auto and was resting there. Firemen said Tripp would have been electrocuted if he had touched the hot handle. The wire melted a three-inch slit in the car's hood.

It's a Contest!

BOYNE CITY, Mich. (P)—Back in 1952 because he wanted some opposition for mayor, Harry Tompkins circulated a petition to qualify Sam Arbuckle as a candidate. Arbuckle won—that time and three times since.

Then in the latest election, Tompkins, who hadn't qualified as a candidate, announced he was running as a write-in candidate to insure a contest.

Tompkins won with 280 write-ins to 170 regular ballots for Arbuckle.

Fenced In

AMARILLO, Tex. (P)—When his 2-year-old son was injured when struck by a car while playing in a driveway, W. J. Carroll forgot about the fence he was building to keep the youngster in the back yard.

But his neighbors didn't. "I came home from the hospital one night and there the fence was—finished," Carroll said.

'A Day of Beauty' Is Theme For Otterville Flower Show

The flower show sponsored annually by the Otterville Garden Club was held May 23 at the school auditorium. The theme, "A Day of Beauty," was appropriately used in the staging of the show. Specimen entries were shown on the tables arranged in a giant horseshoe covered in white. Arrangements were displayed from special tables and a tier of the auditorium bleachers. Corsages were mounted in a huge antique picture frame. Entrance to the show was through a trellis covered with spring shrubbery and surrounded by baskets of spring flowers. Guests signing the guest book were presented a small souvenir of the occasion.

For the first time, the club show included a tea garden where all visitors were served refreshments. The garden included four tables covered with linen cloths, chairs, flower urns and a record box. The garden was enclosed by a white picket fence and gateway.

Other features of the show included a display of the accomplishments of the Otterville 4-H Club, a book display from the Garden Club Book Center, model table settings for a family breakfast, lunch and dinner and an educational exhibit for gardeners.

Many considered the show the most beautiful sponsored by the club. The show was opened from two in the afternoon until nine that evening.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

New Use For Old Windmills

I drove past Larson's farm last week and saw him perched on top of his 75-year-old windmill. "Still planning on tearing it down?" I shouted up to him.

"Not on your life," says Curly as he climbs down. "I'm getting myself a television set from Buzz Ellis' and he says this windmill is going to come in mighty handy."

"You see," Curly went on, "I'm going to put my TV antenna right on top of it. Since the windmill is higher than the house, I'll get the best reception around here—but if it wasn't for Buzz and his advice, I'd have scrapped it."

From where I sit, Curly's success as a farmer and his popularity in town is due, in a large part, to his open-mindedness and his willingness to listen to people and their opinions. He'll listen to Buzz Ellis over a malted milk or he and I can talk politics—each with a glass of temperate beer. Yes, Curly's as modern as television itself!
